Tewkesbury Aquathlon Series 2009

Looking for motivation through the winter months in preparation for the upcoming season? Want to monitor your progress leading to the new season? Or are you just looking for a challenge? Could this be the answer?

Now into it's Second year the Tewkesbury Aquathlon Series is an excellent way for beginners to learn more about multi-sport competitions and also for more experienced athletes to race themselves into shape ahead of the impending summer season.

Running from Tewkesbury School, the series consists of 4 events with 3 to count towards the overall series.

18th January

15th February

22nd March

19th April

The event format is simple, a 400m swim followed by a 5km off road run. The swim is 20 lengths of Tewkesbury School pool followed by 3 laps of the school playing fields totalling 5km.

Individual entry fees are £10 per race, entries on the day are £12 . Minimum age is 16 and each event is limited to 100 competitors so enter early to avoid disappointment. Race information will be available from the website to download, note we will not be posting out information.
